REGULAR ANNIAL SALE, OF CARPETS,
OILCLOTIS &c.

Families moving into houses where their old Carpete cannot be utted without waste, or who have Carpets that begin to look raber shabby, will not it to their advantage to send them to our Salesrooms, in time for this sale, and by attending the sale, they may be replaced by Carpets which will not a metion prices. We usually have a very large assortment of Velvei, Brussels, Turre-ply, hursma and Stair Carpets, besides any quantity of Oil Cieths, Rare. Door Mate, &c. &c. Many of these are as good as new. And we publish a Catalogue on the day before the sale, in which the length and number of breadths in each Carpet is stated, and on the day of Sale such Carpet is spread out on the man floor of our capacious Sales Room, giving purchasers a good opportunity for examination.

The number of contributions from New York City to our last annual sade leads us to hope that many more may be induced to try the carperiment of sending over, not only their carpets, but any other FURNITURE, as those is no autitourous in the City of New York so well arranged for the proper carbibition, without the risk of damaging, hardsome Furniture, to be sold at suction. The location is the most central near the City Hall and the junction of all the railroad lines, and we say, without fear of contradiction, that so large a crowd of respectable purchasers, both ladies and gentlemen, as muchly attend our sales is seidom gathered in an auction from room. The skidtional explane of crossing the ferry to our sales roome is only shout 20 cents per lond.
